Dear Sir,

I write to request ~~for~~ early orders of Government regarding the posting of an Assistant Commissioner to the Mysore Sub Division. Mr. BalaRaj Urs having been relieved for special duty in the Palace, my Personal Assistant has been placed in charge. In consequence of heavy and responsible duties in connection with the Viceregal Visit, it is essential that there should be a separate Sub Divisional Officer posted for the Division with the least possible delay. I request therefore, that a suitable Assistant Commissioner may be kindly sent as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

Referring to correspondence ending with your D.O. letter No.C.D.O. 108 dated the 10/12th October 1923, I beg to state further that Mr. Abdul Khadar is in charge of the Mysore Sub Division in addition to his own duties as my Personal Assistant. I have already urged the necessity of a separate Sub Division Officer to be posted for the Mysore Sub Division with the least possible delay and in consequence of heavy and responsible duties connected with the ensuing Vice Regal Visit. As Mr. Balaraj Urs has obviously continued to work in the Palace, I request that some experienced and suitable officer may be posted to the Sub Division immediately.
